

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

THURSDAY EVE., NOV. 23, 1882.

ROSSER & MCCARTHY,

PUBLISHERS AND PROPRIETORS.

A VERY pleasant piece of news
To every shivering soul,
Is some Samaritan has knocked
The props from under coal.
Now let us form a Ku Klux Klan
Of every one in town,
To put our feet upon its neck
And keep the blamed thing down.

TURKEYS are studying an essay, "How to give up the ghost."

THE wedding bells are to be set jingling again soon in this community.

MR. POLLITT, driver of the Tollesboro and Maysville omnibus, will extend his trip to Vanceburg every Monday, Wednesday and Saturday, provided the business justifies his doing so.

MR. W. L. STICKLEY succeeds the late Israel Stickley in the wagon making business. He is a skilled workman and we are very sure will give entire satisfaction to all who may favor him with work.

MESSRS. J. H. HALL & Co. received on Tuesday from South America a large order for plows. The Eagle plows have been used there for many years and are considered a staple article in that market.

THE following marriage licenses have been issued in Brown county, Ohio, since our last report:

Wm. McKinley, Rachael M. Barnes.
Charles P. Neal, Helen Stevenson.
John Mezger, Agnes Jacquemin.
Thomas B. Hartman, Dora Ross.
Jerry Johnson, Bettie May Coleman.

THERE is an American Langtry in the Oates Opera Company which is to appear in this city on 29th inst at the Opera House. Miss Lizzie Rochelle is a young American girl of the Langtry type of beauty with none of the latter's personal defects.

FLEMINGSBURG Democrat: Wm. Craig, from England, son of a member of the House of Commons, arrived here last week for the purpose of learning farming. He is under the care of Mr. T. R. Botts. Mr. Craig is a clever and intelligent little gentleman, and we welcome him among us.

S. W.—Thomas Martin.
J. W.—Thomas Glascock.

Six hundred copies of the EVENING BULLETIN are printed and sent every day to subscribers in this city, Aberdeen, Chester, Germantown, Fern Leaf, Minerva, Shannon, Mt. Olivet, Sardis, Mayslick and Washington. Its value as an advertising medium must therefore be appreciated. Our rates are the lowest and circulation the largest.

DELICIOUS little cakes, that also have the charm of novelty, can be made by making a rich jumble paste, rolling out in any desired shape; cut some paste in thick narrow strips and lay around your cakes as to form a deep, cut like edge, place on a well buttered tin and bake. When done fill with iced fruit prepared as follows: Take rich, ripe peaches (canned ones will do if fine and well drained from all juice,) cut in halves, plums, strawberries, pineapples cut in squares or small triangles, or any other available fruit, and dip in the white of an egg that has been very slightly beaten and then in pulverized sugar, and lay in the center of your cakes.

The Virtue of Lime on Tobacco Land.

"Hill Top," in the American Cultivator gives the following advice to planters: After plowing their land for next year's tobacco crop farmers are earnestly recommended to apply to such lands at least two barrels of good stone lime to the acre. This lime should be slacked with water, taking care that it is not made wet as to cause it to become lumpy. A condition of fineness is necessary in order that so small a quantity may be evenly spread over the acre of land. If the soil under cultivation is stiff in its nature, carrying a large percentage of vegetable matter, then an increased quantity of lime would be advantageous. It is not probable, however, that even one-half the two barrels of lime will be taken up by the crop the first year. The object in applying the lime is the production of a leaf of superior burning qualities one that always yields a white ash when burned. Growers must meet the market requirements in their crops. However nice and handsome the leaf is in appearance, it is yet of little value without proper burning qualities. If the application of lime is made this fall, it will not deleteriously affect the fertilizers subsequently applied. It is well known that lime has a tendency to liberate the ammonia contained in manure. Again, the proper dissolving of lime requires a quantity of water, and the crop can only take up and assimilate the lime when dissolved, and in a liquid form. As the dissolving of lime requires 700 times its weight of water, the early and abundant rains of spring are needed to thoroughly accomplish the work.

PERSONALS.

Points About Here and People Elsewhere.

Mrs. Dr. Allen, of Tilton, Ky., is visiting her mother Mrs. Stine, of the Fifth Ward.

Mr. Sam. M. Hall has returned from his Southern trip. He is in good health and looks well.

The Ohio State Register, published at Washington C. H., contains the following: Miss Emma Hauke, a handsome little lady from the "Blue Grass Region," is the guest of Miss Maggie Ott. She will extend her visit till after Christmas.

Miss Maggie Ott has returned home, after a very pleasant visit to relatives and friends in Maysville and Louisville, Ky., and also in Cincinnati.

Miss Amanda Morehead, a well known belle of Mt Gilead, will be married on the 29th inst., to Mr. George France, of Carlisle. The marriage will take place at Helena.

Holiday Edition.

During the week preceeding Christmas the DAILY BULLETIN will be enlarged to a five column paper and an edition of one thousand copies printed and circulated each day in this city, Chester, Aberdeen and in the other towns adjacent to Maysville. We shall thus be enabled to offer the business men of the city who wish to advertise their holiday goods, the best and at the same time the cheapest medium for doing so. Our patrons may rely upon having their favors printed in six thousand papers during the week, all of which will be circulated where they will be of the most benefit to advertisers. Call and ascertain our rates. Contracts should be made immediately as our space will be limited.

Holman Opera Company.

The Holman Opera Company, one of the neatest and most refined musical organizations in this country, has written to the managers of the opera house to ascertain the open dates during the first week in December. The troupe will appear, should it visit Maysville, in Olivette or Patience, and as the company has an orchestra of eight pieces, the music will be artistically rendered. Our citizens certainly have a rich treat in store for them.

Marriages To-day.

At the residence of Mr. A. A. Wadsworth Miss Lizzie M. Cox to Mr. H. C. Thompson, both of Lexington.

At the home of Mr. Stevens, on Lawrence creek, Miss Sallie E. Stevens to Mr. W. L. Moran.

At the Christian Church, Germantown, Miss Hattie G. Frazee to Mr. R. K. Hart, the latter of Poplar Plains, Ky. Good luck to all,

THE approach of the holiday season suggests one thing that parents ought to consider seriously and that is that the candies supplied to the little ones of the household shall be pure. A great deal of the candy now in the market contains a large proportion of glucose, clay, or other adulterating materials, that are, of course, very injurious to health. The vile stuff ought to be driven out of the market. Pure candy can be had just as well and buyers should insist upon getting that kind.

Alice Oates.

Next Wednesday evening the sprightly and sweet voiced Alice Oates will entertain our theater going people with the witching music of the merry Mascotte. The Norwalk news says of the recent appearance of this troupe at Norwalk: "The Alice Oates Opera Bouffe Company gave one of the finest entertainments ever given in Whittlesy Hall. The audience composed the elite of this city. Alice Oates made a great hit in La Mascotte. She is a fine actress and her voice is rich and powerful. The whole troupe was far above the average. The house would be filled to overflowing should they ever come here again." Secure your seats soon, as they are going rapidly.

COUNTY POINTS.

MT. OLIVET.

The fall term of the Robertson county, Chancery Court commenced here Monday. Quite a number of important cases are on the docket for trial at this term of the court.

From the number of drunken men that were seen on our streets, Monday, we would infer that the moonshiner is still about here. Although some arrests have been made lately for selling whisky illegally, this will continue probably as long as the inebriate and others who drink the vile stuff are willing to buy something that robs them both of their money and senses.

Rev. S. E. Day has commenced a series of meetings at the M. E. Church, South, which may be continued two or three weeks. Our people seem to be manifesting considerable interest in religious subjects this fall. A spirit which is commendable as the moral tone of this community may be greatly elevated by religious and other moral teachings.

The Tribune of November 2d, contains a dispatch dated Boston, Nov. 10, saying Ex-Secretary Blaine has positively refused to become a candidate for the Presidency in 1884. This looks like the enterprising editor of our county paper intended to give up farming and trading in real estate and furnish the people with a first class newspaper, giving the news from all parts of the world even in advance of all other publications.

Jumbo on his Muscle.

From the Bridgeport Farmer.

Jumbo took it into his capricious head last night that he would like a little more liberty, and so he braced himself, and, placing his enormous head against the side of the building, walked through it apparently as easily as if it were paper. Previous to his return with the travelling show the corner designed for him in the elephant quarters was overlaid with plank, crossed and recrossed, spiked and bolted, until a wall nearly a foot thick had been formed, and it was thought that nothing on this earth could tear it down. But he pried off the boards with his tusks, and made quite a hole in that way. Then he went through what was left with the greatest ease. He wasn't a bit ugly about it; it was only one of his playful freaks. After he reached the open air he was as quiet and gentle as a lamb, and walked all around the grounds unconcerned, in charge of Mr. Scott, his English trainer. His prodigious strength can hardly be realized. He will snap off a beam six inches square with great ease, and perform other pleasant tricks of like nature.

You can save money, besides getting the freshest styles, if you give Hunt & Doyle a call before buying.

The Best.

There are other good cooking stoves and A. J. Egnew & Co., keeps them in stock, but if there are two stoves in existence which lay just claims to superiority in many respects over all others they are the OMAHA AND HOT BLAST CHARTER. We have not the space here to point out their many merits but call at our establishment on Market street and we will take great pleasure in doing so there, whether you wish to buy the stove or not. We consider it the best stove in the market. oct30d&w1m. A. J. EGNEW & Co.
